

GI BILL RESOURCES

During WWII, Congress discussed how to help veterans when they returned home. In 1944, the first GI Bill was passed, offering veterans education and training, loan options, and unemployment pay [1]. Since then, the bill has undergone several revisions, the latest including an expansion passed in 2017.

Eligibility Links

Post-9/11

Selected Reserve

Active Duty

VEAP

“ Since its [(Post-9/11 GI Bill)] implementation in August 2009, the Department of Veteran Affairs has provided educational benefits to nearly 800,000 veterans and their families totaling more than $12 billion.

-US Dept of Defense

 = 5,000 veterans

What do you need to apply?

- Social Security number
- Direct deposit information
- Education & military history
- School/training facility information

Resource Link

More Resources

Test Reimbursement

Preparatory Course Reimbursement

GI Bill Comparison Tool

College Navigator

Ask VA

[1] https://www.va.gov/HISTORY/VA_History/Overview.asp
For works cited, click here.
Learn more at gienc.org under the Veteran Resources section.